

Karol Madera and Pedophilia

Periodically, Karol Madera (VE7KFM) persuades one of his useful idiots to defame those whom he holds responsible for reporting his hate propaganda and threats to Canadian authorities.

Madera was made quite uncomfortable on a few occasions when he was questioned by the RCMP and his local police. So uncomfortable, in fact, that he actually posted a hand written, cardboard sign on his home that said "Fucktards Beware. You have been warned!"

Ever since his first visit by authorities, Madera has been bent on retaliation and defamation of those responsible.

Madera & Co's latest ruse involves persuading others to lodge false accusations of various forms of child abuse against those who report his infantile and threatening behavior.

Madera is a failure at law, in real estate, as a soldier, and as a human being. There are now several agencies in the United States who routinely disregard any complaint that remotely smells as though it may have originated with Karol Madera & Co.

In fact, two Federal agents have volunteered to field phone calls involving complaints stemming from Madera's lies and the fruit of the poisonous tree.

What do pedophilia and Karol Florian Madera (VE7KFM) have in common?

Plenty, according to listeners who heard Madera tell a man, "If you have a daughter with big tits, I promise not to come in her mouth."

Witnesses say Madera was speaking to the father of a 12 year old girl. From a legal standpoint, Madera's statement could be interpreted as the solicitation of a child for the purpose of engaging in illegal sexual relations, to wit, sodomy.

Most people who've heard Madera believe he's crass and disgusting; that's beyond debate. However, few people seem to be aware of Madera's penchant for seeking oral sex from children residing in the United States.

Karol Madera - Solicits Minors for Sexual Relations

Soliciting minors for sexual relations is a serious crime in the U.S. The term pedophilia , pedophile, and child molester apply when an adult engages in, or seeks to engage in illegal sexual relations with a child below the age of consent. In much of the U.S., the age of consent is 18.

Madera believes his get-out-of-jail-free card depends on Canadian law, where the age of consent is 14. In fact, Madera, who is over 60 years old, does not bother to deny he's solicited children as young as 14, because he believes the solicitation of 14 year old children is legal.

That may be true in Canada, but it is not true when the victim of the solicitation resides in the United States. Unfortunately, Madera has solicited youngsters in the United States. Fortunately, he doesn't demean women nearly as often as he talks about his sexual fantasies involving men.

Karol Madera's Fantasies Related to Homosexual Rape

The fact that Madera has frequently voiced a desire to participate in violent homosexual rape cannot be disputed. Madera frequently incites others to perform homosexual rape on men he dislikes, while Madera takes delight in fantasizing out loud about the use of explosives and large inanimate objects in the accomplishment of anal rape.

On one occasion, Madera told David Castle to "shove a roughly sharpened 4x4 weathered fencepost up Special Counsel, Riley Hollingsworth's rectum.

Threats of Homosexual Rape

In similar fashion, Madera physically threatened US Ambassador David Wilkins, saying he planned to shove a picket fence stay up the Ambassador's rectum.

Madera also discussed his fantasy that a "number 6 detonator would be shoved up a different man's rectum."

Sadistic Anal Rape Fantasies

In his typically sadistic way, Madera said he hoped the explosion of the detonator in the man's anus would make the man focus on the error of his ways, before expiring, very slowly.

We remind the reader that Madera sued the Victoria Real Estate Board, alleging that they discriminated against him because he was not a member of the "alternate persuasion." Madera lost the suit, and the court Ordered Madera to pay Board Members $1,000 (each) plus court costs.

Karol Madera -- Assholes and al Qaida

Madera recently discussed American troops in Afghanistan and Iraq, saying, "A pox on all their houses, may al Qaida drive their teeth out through their asshole."

Madera can be forgiven his lack of grammatical eloquence since he is not a native English speaker, however, the theme of violent homosexual rape and his affiliation with America's enemies is not lost in translation.

In the past two years, one of Madera's favorite phrases (referring to our troops) has been, "I hope al Qaida shoves their teeth out their assholes."

Support for Al Qaida Combined With Homosexual Rape Fantasies

Madera has not hesitated to express support for al Qaida on any number of occasions. He's also said he would wish all Americans roadside bombs, as long as everyone's son and daughter would be sent to the front line, because American's need to be taught a lesson and they need to suffer the consequences of their misguided actions.

Madera's Infantile Oral Anal Fixation

Continuing our examination of Madera's infantile oral/anal fixation, not long ago, Madera threatened an elderly man, saying, "I'm going to suggest somebody drive your teeth out your asshole."

Discussing yet another man, Madera said "I hope his teeth are shoved out through his asshole." This theme recurs often during Madera's long diatribes, while broadcasting on short wave, calling himself Radio Canada.

Anti-U.S. Sentiment in Abundance

Again referring to US troops, his signature line as he departs after being jammed off the air has been "The sooner you get your teeth kicked out your asshole, the better" This may be one of Madera's best known endearments.

The Largest Faggot Law School In Canada?

The oral/anal fixations continue whenever Madera discusses his alma mater. He identifies himself as "A graduate of the largest faggot law school in Canada."

Given his obvious familiarity with the means and methodology of homosexual fetishism, he apparently received excellent training in the subject.

Not a Lawyer, Not Even Close

Madera is not a lawyer. He was rejected from becoming a member of the British Columbia Law Society.

Madera is quick to point out that during his legal training, the only thing he didn't do is "suck cock."

If that's the only thing Madera didn't do at the largest faggot law school in Canada, then we suspect his other training made up for his lack of expertise in 'oral' arguments.

However, we don't believe his schooling had anything to do with the way he comports himself. Instead, we believe it had to do with his rearing, or a unique form of home schooling, if you will.

A Liar, and a Fraud

We are in a quandary. Since Madera is a well known, notorious, and self admitted fraud and liar, it's difficult to know what to believe.

Madera is almost as conversant with lies and fraud as he is with homosexual oral sex, violent homosexual rape, and the solicitation of underage children.

When we discuss him, we often thank God he's on a remote island and that he is Canada's problem and not ours.

Karol Madera - Master of Paraphilia

Although this particular suffix is not found among his (mostly useless) degrees and appellations, Madera can truly be said to be a Master of Paraphilia.

No one in the entire realm of radio seems to know more about forcible homosexual rape than Karol Madera. And speaking of homosexual oral sex; Madera actually recommends learning how to suck and blow, even though he says he's not a practitioner of that particular art.

Again, we remind our readers that truthfulness and credibility are omnipresent problems where Madera is concerned.

The Invitation Stands

Simply put, Karol Madera is amateur radio's best known liar. Please remember Madera's credibility problem the next time you read some nonsense on a web page authored by Karol Madera or one of his bizarre acquaintances.

At the Center for Media Studies, we don't write anything we can't back up with numerous witnesses, independently verified recordings, or official documents.

Over two years ago we invited Madera to sue us regarding anything he believes is in error on these pages, and, interestingly enough... nothing heard!

Madera: Full of Sound and Fury, Signifying Nothing

In Conclusion, we hope this short expose' has opened the eyes of any who defend Madera's so-called "freedom of speech." We remind his audience that sexual solicitation of children; slander; libel; hate propaganda, and/or incitations to homosexual rape, and murder, do not fall within the category of protected speech, whether in Canada, or the United States.

To date, the Crown in Canada has declined to prosecute. However, that could change with the stroke of a pen. Let's hope it does, and soon.
